Condition of CGHS Gynae Hospital, R.K. Puram, New Delhi

1809 SHRI O.P. KOHLI: Will the Minister of HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE be pleased to state:

(a) whether CGHS Gynae Hospital, Sector-V, R.K. Puram, New Delhi is not providing Emergency/Casualty service round the clock and the patients are asked to report to OPD for treatment even in emergent cases;

(b) if so, the reasons therefor and the steps taken to start Emergency/Casualty service round the clock;

(c) the steps taken to ensure punctuality in the attendance of the OPD doctors in the Hospital;

(d) the steps taken to improve the cleanliness in the hospital; and

(e) the total number of ceasarean/ normal births in the Hospital during 1995?

THE MINISTER OF HEALTH AND FAMILTY WELFARE (SHRI A.R. ANTULAY): (a) No, Sir. Emergency Services are being provided round the clock to CGHS beneficiaries.

(b) Does not arise.

(c) Punctuality is being maintained by the OPD doctors in the hospital and no complaint has been received from the beneficiaries in this regard.

(d) By and large, cleanliness is being maintained properly.

(e) Out of the total number of 1055 delivery cases, the number of ceasarean operations performed is 179 during the period from 1st January, 1995 to 21st November, 1995.

Debarring persons having more than two children from seeking elections

1810. SHRI SATISH AGARWAL: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have any proposal under consideration to enact the law for debarring persons having more than two children from seeking elections to various elected bodies right from Panchayat to Parliament; and

(b) the names of State Governments who have enacted such laws and the reaction of the Union Government to such enactments?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF LAW, JUSTICE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI H.R. BHARDWAJ): (a) The Constitution (Seventy-ninth Amendment) Bill, 1992 introduced by the Government in Rajya Sabha on 22nd December, 1992 contains provisions to disqualify a person for being chosen as and for being a member of either House of Parliament or of the Legislature of a State, if he has more than two children. The proposed amendment would have prospective effect.

(b) The State Panchayati Raj Acts of Andhra Pradesh, Rajasthan, Haryana and Orissa contain provisions for debarring persons having more than two children from contesting Panchayat elections. The Union Government is in favour of such a law.

Self-Reliance in Nuclear Fuel

1811. SHRI SANJAY DALMIA:
MAULANA OBAIDULLAH KHAN AZMI:
SHRI NAGMANI:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether India have become self-reliant in the matter of nuclear fuel; and

(b) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE PRIME MINISTER'S OFFICE